

Each panel is scheduled for two hours for three or four papers. Presentations proceed in the order listed on the program. Moderators should keep their panels strictly on schedule. This will allow attendees to switch rooms during concurrent sessions. For panels with three papers, each paper is allotted 40 minutes: 18 minutes for the author’s presentation, 8 minutes for the discussant comments, and 14 minutes for Q&A. For panels with four papers, each paper is allotted 30 minutes: 14 minutes for the author’s presentation, 6 minutes for the discussant comments, and 10 minutes for Q&A. The last presenter in each session is the moderator, meaning they are responsible for giving time cues to the other presenters. Time cards will be available in each room.
